

FOLD HERE

- 5 Solve the Case
You found what you need! Use the information from the site, but be sure to say it in your own words. Write down the web address and include it with your work to give the author credit.
- 4
Look beyond the first few results. Click on and skim read articles that seem to answer your question. If the results aren't what you need, try adjusting your search terms. Don't give up!
- 3 Look for Clues
Review the search results to find credible sources. Sites ending with .org, .edu, and .gov are usually the most trustworthy.

FOLD HERE

Internet Research: 5 Steps for Super Sleuths

myView LITERACY

- 1 Define the Problem
What are you trying to find out? Be specific. Make a list.
- 2 Search for Clues
Type important keywords into a search engine, like Google. You can also use quotation marks ("") around exact wording that you want to appear in your results.

FOLD HERE