✓		2. EQUAL OPPORTUNITY The instructional materials meet the requirements of equal opportunity – concept, content, illustration, heritage, roles contributions, experiences and achievements of males and females in American and other cultures – as set by West Virginia Board of Education Policy (Adopted May 1975).	Reading Street also avoids stereotyping of males and females by providing selections at each grade level that show both males and females in positive and constructive roles. Students also read about older people and people with physical challenges. Examples can be found throughout the Student Edition.
✓		3. FORMAT This resource is available as an option for adoption in an interactive electronic format.	Reading Street's parallel digital resources engage all students with user-friendly, interactive activities. Videos, games, animations, and e-text relate directly to daily instruction and enhance comprehension. Reading Street users can select digital assets to assign to students and provide feedback. Automatic remediation is delivered based on student assessment data. See Grade 6 Unit 1 p. 20c for an overview of the digital resources and the individual references on pages 20–21, 21b, 22–23, 23b, 23d, 23f, 24b, 24d, 24–25, etc.

Text Selection

Complexity of Texts: The submission exhibits concrete evidence that research-based quantitative measures as well as qualitative analysis have been used in selection of complex texts that align to the standards. Further, submissions will include a demonstrable staircase of text complexity as materials progress across grade bands.

4. Texts for each grade band align with the complexity requirements outlined in the objectives. Rare exceptions (in which the qualitative measure has trumped the quantitative measure and placed the text outside the grade band) are usually reserved for literary texts in the upper grades, with clear explanation offered.

The goal of the Reading Street instructional design is that all students work with rich, complex text and ideas in order to advance their vocabulary, concept development, and syntax needed for strong reciprocal writing. A proud hallmark of the Reading Street program is its embedded standard of rigor for all, due in part to the influence of lead author Dr. Jeanne Paratore, whose multitext model informed the instructional processes. With rigor being a widely validated component of motivation, multiple means and ample opportunities are provided to open up access to grade-level content and beyond for all levels of learner in both whole and small groups.

The Reading Street Student Edition contains selections that are at the level of text complexity required in Standard 10 of Literature and Standard 10 of Informational Text. The following chart shows the text complexity for the main selections in a sample unit of Grade 6.

Grade 6 Selection Examples

Title—Unit 1	Lexile	Average Sentence Length	Word Frequency
Old Yeller	940	15.32	3.65
Mother Fletcher’s Gift	840	14.25	3.52
Viva New Jersey	940	12.77	3.63
Saving the Rain Forests	940	13.99	3.45
Hachiko: The True Story of a Loyal Dog	830	15.25	3.62

✓	5. Instructional materials include shorter, challenging texts that elicit close reading and multiple readings for varied purposes.	Each main selection is accompanied by two sets of questions. The Access Text questions used in the 1st Read help students comprehend the text. The Close Reading questions used in the 2nd Read extend the interpretation of the text using higher-level thinking skills with Analysis, Synthesis, and Evaluation questions applied to the text and supported by Text Evidence. In addition, scaffolding is provided in small group lessons to address the complex text provided in the Student Edition and in Reading Street Sleuth. Reading Street offers scaffolds to ensure that all students have access to complex text. Explicit and systematic support is provided at point of use in the core lesson and in the small group lessons. See examples from Grade 6 Unit 1: 26–27 to 31a, 32–33 to 39a, 44–45 to 47a.
---	---	--

✓		6. Instructional materials, including read aloud selections, provide all students extensive opportunities to encounter and comprehend grade-level texts and beyond.	Selections for Reading Street Student Editions were chosen based on their text complexity using quantitative, qualitative, and reader-task criteria. Quantitative criteria used were Lexile scores, average sentence length, and word frequency. Together with these quantitative criteria, qualitative and reader-task criteria, such as levels of meaning, structure, language conventionality and clarity, appropriateness of concepts, and reading purpose and task, were measured and assessed to place selections within and across grade levels. To support teachers, a Text Complexity Rubric for all main selections has been created and included on the back of the weekly Teacher's Editions tabs. The rubrics were created by Dr. Elfrieda Heibert based on the research of our authorship team including but not limited to the work of Dr. Elfrieda Heibert, Dr. P. David Pearson, and Dr. Karen Wixson. The program also includes Reading Street Sleuth selections. All concept-related Sleuth selection follow appropriate Lexile scores for the grade level.

Range of Text:

Instructional materials must reflect the distribution of text types and genres required by the standards.

✓		7. In grades K-5, ELA programs shift the balance of texts and instructional time to 50% literature / 50% informational high-quality text. In grades 6–12, ELA programs shift the balance of texts and instructional time toward reading a blend of literary fiction, literary nonfiction and other informational texts.	All of the selections in Reading Street are of high quality and fall within the prescribed grade level complexity bands described in Appendix A of the Common Core State Standards. The selections provide an equal balance of literary and informational text. For each week, Reading Street offers a main selection and a shorter paired selection on the same topic or concept. A rich variety of literary and informational texts were chosen for these selections. Most main selections are published works, excerpts from published books, or original selections created by well-known, grade-level appropriate authors. The paired selections are shorter works. Most are a different genre from that of the main selection. The program's weekly Reading Street Sleuth selections include fiction and nonfiction selections. Each Sleuth selection is two pages with text, illustrations, and text-based questions. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• For Grade 6, 37% of the selections in the Student Edition are literature and 63% are informational text. Reading Street Sleuth selections, Trade Books, and Leveled Readers are additional literature and informational texts with a science or social studies connection.

✓		8. Instructional materials provide a thoughtful sequence or collection of texts that build knowledge systematically through reading, writing, speaking and listening. Specific anchor texts of grade-level complexity are selected for close reading.	Each lesson is text-based and the instruction includes reading as well as listening, speaking, and writing development. All phases of the lesson incorporate interaction that involves reading, speaking, listening, and writing. See the 5-Day Planner (Grade 6 Unit 1 Week 1 pages 20d–20e) for an overview of the closely related lesson concepts and Day at a Glance (Grade 6 Unit 1 Week 1 pages 20j, 24a, 32a, 44a, 49f) for the integrated daily plan. Extended writing applications can be found in the Writing to Sources component for each grade level. Writing to Sources uses a variety of activities to explore narrative, informative/explanatory, and opinion/argument writing carefully coordinated with the reading selections in Reading Street.
✓		9. Additional instructional materials increase the opportunity for regular independent reading of texts that appeal to students.	Independent Reading is a key component in Reading Street. At all grade levels, Independent Reading support is offered on the Access for All and the Independent Stations section of the weekly front matter. For examples, see Grade 6 Teacher’s Edition Unit 1 pages 20f–20g, 20h–20i.

Quality of Texts:

High-quality texts are worth reading closely and exhibit exceptional craft and thought, and provide useful information.

✓		10. Literary texts must be content rich, well-crafted, and representative of a variety of genres and subject matter.	Most of the main selections in each grade are excerpts from published books or original selections created by well-known, grade-level appropriate authors. Each grade also has a drama or play. Full-length books can be found in the Independent Reading activities for the Pearson Trade Book Library. The main purpose of the reading materials used in the program is to include a wide variety of reading genres and grade-appropriate subjects related to the unit topic and concepts. These materials allow the instruction to use the questioning techniques to build comprehension concepts. See Grade 6 Unit 1 Week 2 pages 56–71 for an example of a literature selection.

✓		11. Informational texts must provide opportunities to develop rich content knowledge in a variety of disciplines and must reflect quality writing appropriately calibrated for students in the band level.	Each grade level is organized into six units. For each unit a grade-appropriate concept summarized in a unit question is divided into weekly topics and questions to create content knowledge related to social studies and science concepts. This structure is followed from Grade K to Grade 6. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For Grade 6 Unit 1, Unit Skills Overview introductory pages xvi and xvii show at a glance how the unit is structured with Integrated Science and Social Studies topics, the Weekly Question, and the Knowledge Goals. This is also presented in the Weekly structure on Content Knowledge page xxii. See Grade 6 Unit 1 Week 4 pages 114–127 for an example of an informational selection.

Text-Dependent and Text-Specific Questions:

Questions in the instructional materials are high-quality, text-dependent and text-specific, drawing student attention to the significant aspects of the text.

✓		12. High-quality sequences of text-dependent questions and tasks require the use of textual evidence according to grade-specific objectives.	In the Reading Street program, each lesson in a unit begins with text-based instruction. The Access Text questions that accompany the main selection focus on finding information in the selection to answer the comprehension questions. The Close Reading questions also require text evidence but use Synthesis, Analysis, and Evaluation questions to help students achieve a deeper understanding of the text. See Grade 6 Unit 1 Teacher's Edition pages 28–29 to 33a and 34–35 to 41a.

✓		13. Questions and tasks support students in analyzing the academic language (vocabulary and syntax) prevalent in complex texts.	Each selection lesson plan contains Amazing Words, which are content words related to the unit topic and the specific selection. The words are presented in a variety of contexts and are then used by students in daily activities to help them master the use and meanings of the words. The Content Knowledge and Build Oral Vocabulary sections at the beginning of each Day help enhance vocabulary development for all students. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Grade 6 Teacher’s Edition Unit 1 Week 1 Day 1: 20j, 20–21, 21a–21b; Day 2: 24a–24b; Day 3: 32a–32b; Day 4: 44a–44b; Day 5: 49f–49g For Grade 6, the Monitor and Clarify strategy in many of the lessons, along with Context Clues activities, helps students use the context of a selection to check that they have correctly identified and understood words. The strategy also suggests ways, including rereading, that students can use to gain meaning and verify their understanding of the selection. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • See Grade 6 Unit 2 Teacher’s Edition pages 177c, 178–179, 192–193, 270e, 270–271, 278–279, 279a, 294–295, 295a; Unit 4 pages 24e, 24–25, 32–33, 48–49, 49a, 49h, 86e, 86–87, 96–97, 97a, 108–109, 109a, 109h, 143c, 144–145, 156–157, 160–16

Scaffolding and Supports:

The instructional materials provide all students, including those who read below grade level, with extensive opportunities to encounter and comprehend grade-level complex texts (either listened to or read) as required by the objectives. Instructional materials direct teachers to return to focused parts of the text to guide students through rereading, discussion and writing about the ideas, events and information regularly and systematically.

✓		14. Pre-reading activities and suggested approaches to teacher scaffolding are highly focused and begin with the text itself. Pre-reading activities should be no more than 10% of time devoted to any reading instruction and should exclude a summary of the text.	For Grade 6, the lesson begins with Content Knowledge to prepare students to understand the main and paired selections. The Oral Language section based on the Amazing Words is developed at the beginning of each Day’s instruction. Selection Vocabulary is presented and practiced in a short Read Aloud selection prior to reading the main selection. The Access Text with Modeling helps students recognize information so they can comprehend the text and gain information. By providing these activities, students are prepared to successfully read more complex text. See preliminary activities on Grade 6 Unit 1 p. 20j and selection activities beginning on p. 26–27.
✓		15. Instructional materials must be built with the goal of students gaining full comprehension of complex texts. Reading strategies have to support comprehension of specific texts and focus on building knowledge and insight. Texts must not serve solely as platforms to practice strategies.	Reading Street explicitly teaches reading strategies for students to apply to their deep reading of text through direct teaching, systematic review, and application. For examples, see Grade 6 Teacher’s Edition Unit 1 pages 21c to 22–23, 26–27 to 31a, 32–33 to 39a.

✓		16. Questions and tasks require careful comprehension of the text as a precursor for asking students for evaluation or interpretation.	Texts are the focal points for activities—individual and collaborative—in reading, writing, speaking, and listening. Questions and activities with all texts in Reading Street encourage students to grow as readers by sharing knowledge through high-level questions, deep thinking, and classroom discourse. In both the main and paired selections every week, which are conceptually coherent, multiple-genre texts, teachers have a model in our Close Read routine and in our Look Back and Write for text-reliant questioning. In Reading Street Sleuth, a student-friendly weekly routine allows readers to internalize the processes that will enable substantiating claims with text-based evidence. See Grade 6 Unit 1 Teacher’s Edition pages 26–27 to 31a, 32–33 to 39a, 44–45 to 47a and the related instructional lessons.
---	--	---	--

✓		17. Questions and tasks that address academic language (vocabulary and syntax) support students in analyzing the meaning of complex texts.	In Content Knowledge on Day 1 at all grade levels in Reading Street, students use academic vocabulary from texts to develop a concept-related graphic organizer that is expanded throughout the week as knowledge is built through discourse and text evidence. Students build oral language and oral vocabulary by acquiring academic and domain-specific words, exemplified in each week's Amazing Words. Students use these words in reading, writing, speaking, and listening. See Grade 6 Teacher's Edition Unit 1 pages 20j, 20–21, 21a–21b, 24a–24b, 32a–32b, 44a–44b, 49f–49g.
---	--	---	--

✓		18. Instructional materials offer monitoring/assessment opportunities that genuinely measure progress. Progress must include gradual release of supporting scaffolds for students to measure their independent abilities.	Assessment in Reading Street is provided at point of use and in additional assessment materials. For examples of Assessment Checkpoints for the Week, see Grade 6 Teacher's Edition Unit 1 page 49r. The Reading Street Assessment Handbook provides more information for teachers on how to interpret assessment results to inform instruction. Reading Street supports teachers with guidance on how to interpret student performance through progress monitoring. The daily monitor progress boxes provide teachers with point of use formative assessment and interpretations guidelines. On Day 3 at all grade levels, retelling rubrics assist teachers in quickly assessing students' retelling of the main selections (Anchor Text). Writing rubrics accompany all writing assignments in Reading Street, from formal weekly writing mini-lessons (Let's Write It!) to weekly writing assessment (Look Back and Write) to Process Writing projects at the end of each unit and extended-response writing in the Unit and End-of-Year Benchmark Tests.
---	--	--	---

✓		19. Instructional materials must provide both reteaching and additional student learning opportunities.	The architecture of the daily instructional design affords specific strategies for mediating content in both whole and small group for the range of learning style and proficiencies in classrooms. Multimodal and diverse media experiences augment print instruction, and an increase in specificity and focus of instruction delivers targeted reteaching and remediation in small group or personalized learning settings, all informed by a strong progress monitoring component throughout the series. Also, see the Access for All information for Grade 6 Unit 1 Week 1 on pp. 20f–20g in addition to the Reader’s and Writer’s Notebook, Decodable Readers, and the Independent Practice Stations pp. 20h–20i.

Writing to Sources

Instructional materials must adequately address the writing objectives for the grade.

✓		20. Instructional materials provide opportunities for writing based on what students have read, heard or viewed according to grade-specific objectives.	Writing activities in Reading Street are text dependent and require students to confront the text directly. Daily, weekly, and unit writing activities provide performance tasks for students as they write in response to reading texts at various levels of complexity. The writing strand in Reading Street and the Reading Sleuth sections address opinion/argument, informative/explanatory, and narrative writing tasks, as required by the Common Core State Standards. Daily writing instruction is an integral part of the five-day instructional plan in which students write in response to high-quality, complex texts. Each assignment takes students through the steps in the writing process and focuses on the traits and craft of good writing. Weekly writing is in response to reading in whole or small group and requires students to use text evidence to support ideas, claims, and opinions. In grades K–6 Look Back and Write on each Think Critically page in the Student Edition requires students to respond in writing to the text and use textual evidence to support inferences from the text. On Day 4 in weekly small group instruction, students confront the text in Sleuth by “Making Their Case” as they draw on textual evidence to support claims and statements about the text.

✓		21. Instructional materials provide prominent and varied writing opportunities focusing on the following writing types and progressions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Grades K-2 must include opportunities for informative/explanatory, opinion and narrative writing. • Grades 3-5: informative/explanatory 35%, opinion 30%, narrative 35% • Grades 6-8: informative/explanatory 35%, argument 35%, narrative 30% • Grades 9-12: informative/explanatory 40%, argument 40%, narrative 20% They also may reflect blended forms.	In Reading Street Common Core Writing to Sources, students receive weekly writing instruction aligned with a unit level writing focus. Each week students “Write Like a Reporter” and “Connect the Texts” in the same mode of writing throughout the unit, culminating in a unit level “Prove It!” in that featured mode. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In weekly “Write Like a Reporter” tasks, students write an argumentative, explanatory, or narrative paragraph in response to the main selection and draw on textual evidence to support their ideas. The text-based prompt requires students to directly confront the text. • For weekly “Connect the Texts,” students write in response to two sources—the weekly main and paired selections—drawing on evidence from two texts to write an argument/opinion, to write to inform/explain, or to write a narrative. These lessons are in support of the requirement in the Standards that students make an increasing number of connections among ideas within and between texts as they develop their ability to use textual evidence with increasing facility. • In the unit level “Prove It!” writing tasks, students respond to multiple sources within a unit of instruction to prepare for performance tasks and the

			changing expectations of the upcoming Common Core assessments. In the first part of each unit-level writing task, students are asked to answer evidence-based short response questions based on three texts from that unit of instruction to demonstrate comprehension of key ideas and details. In the second half of the writing task, students use the texts and their notes from the short response questions to write an argument, explanation, or narrative that synthesizes information in response to a text-based prompt. There are 30 Writing lessons and 6 Writing Process lessons for each grade. There are also 30 Reading Street Sleuth lessons that incorporate writing projects. Out of a total of 66 major writing lessons, 50% are opinion and/or argument writing activities that focus on taking a side and making a case. 25% of the 66 major writing lessons are informative/explanatory. In addition, students research and write informative/explanatory text in many of the weekly Research and Inquiry projects. The Look Back and Write activity on the Think Critically page for each selection also asks students to write a response that requires text evidence and is often explanatory writing. 25% of the 66 major writing lessons are narrative. Many selection-based and lesson feature writing activities offer opportunities for narrative writing.

✓		22. Instructional materials provide opportunities for short, focused research projects to guide students in developing the expertise needed to conduct research as stated in grade-specific objectives.	In many of the Research and Inquiry projects, students locate information about the unit topic or concept as they prepare to make a report or presentation on the topic. Each of these activities requires students to use both print and digital materials to locate the necessary information to complete the Research and Inquiry project. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • See Grade 6 Unit 1 Week 1 Teacher’s Edition pages 23b, 31b, 41d, 49b, and 49n for one example.

Speaking and Listening

To be aligned to the Next Generation Content Standards and Objectives, instructional materials must reflect communication skills required for real-world applications and for college and career readiness. Instructional materials should promote frequent and regular discussions about what students have read, heard or viewed.

✓		23. Instructional materials used in speaking and listening tasks must meet the criteria for complexity, range and quality of texts.	Reading Street content provides multiple opportunities for students to develop strong speaking and listening skills as prescribed by the Listening and Speaking strand. Listening and Speaking Standards are practiced during discrete weekly Listening and Speaking lessons and also during Writing projects (Publish and Present) and weekly Build Oral Language/Vocabulary instruction. Lessons and projects presented throughout the program incorporate a range of texts in increasing complexity. For examples, see Grade 6 Teacher's Edition Unit 1 pages 20j–21b, 24a–24b, 32a–32b, 44a–44b, 49a, 49f–49g.

✓		24. Instructional materials provide students frequent, real-world opportunities to engage effectively in a range of discussions and collaborations that build on the ideas of others.	Each Day of the 5-Day lesson plan provides opportunities for students to participate in discussions. Many pages in the Student Edition for Grade 6 have topics intended to encourage discussion and participation. See the following references for the second selection in Grade 6 Student Edition 6.1: Review the Let's Talk About It (50–51), selection annotations (53, 55), and Think Critically questions (72). The Media Literacy or Listening and Speaking activities (TE Unit 1:79a) are also discussion-based.
✓		25. Instructional materials provide opportunities to develop active listening skills, such as asking relevant questions and elaborating on remarks of others. In grades 3-12, this includes note taking.	A key feature of the Let's Learn It! Student Edition pages for Listening and Speaking (Unit 1, 78–79) is the Tips section, which helps students review how to be a good speaker and a good listener. The accompanying Teacher's Edition page 79a gives further information about sharing information. The Teamwork tips emphasize ways to participate in discussions and other speaking activities when sharing information with others. These activities are found in every weekly lesson in the program.

✓		26. Instructional materials must provide opportunities to gather evidence to discuss and orally present findings using academic language.	At all grade levels, the instructional materials in Reading Street make the text the focus of all instruction. All support in Reading Street is designed to complement and enhance the text. All activities are text-based and students return to the text multiple times for reading, vocabulary, writing, speaking and listening, and strategy instruction.

Language

Instructional materials must adequately address the language objectives for the grade.

✓		27. Instructional materials address the grammar and language conventions specified by the language objectives at each grade level.	At all grades in Reading Street , there is explicit instruction in grammar. In Grades 1–6, grammar instruction includes the following. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Daily conventions lessons focused on a weekly grammar skill• Additional instruction and support for daily lessons in the Reader’s and Writer’s Notebook and the Let’s Practice It! TR DVD• Instruction in grammar, usage, and mechanics in the context of reading and writing• Cumulative grammar, usage, and mechanics practice through the Daily Fix-It activities• Grammar, usage, and mechanics practice in the Editing or Proofreading steps of the Weekly and Unit writing lessons

✓		28. Instructional materials guide students in discovering accurate usage patterns (grades K-2), and in identifying and correcting their own error patterns in usage and conventions (grades 3-12).	Throughout Reading Street, the conventions of grammar and usage are presented in student and teacher materials, which provide ample opportunities to use the conventions in speaking and writing. Teacher's Edition lessons introduce, reinforce, and review conventions for types and structures of sentences, kinds of nouns, regular and irregular verbs, pronouns, adjectives, articles, prepositions, and more. Students are provided with extensive practice in identifying and correcting their use of conventions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • See the following pages for Grade 6 Unit 1 Week 1: 23d, 31c, 41e, 49c, 49o.

✓		29. To avoid teaching language concepts in isolation, instructional materials align and integrate language objectives with the reading, writing, speaking and listening objectives.	Conventions instruction is closely integrated into the content of each weekly lesson. Learning the concepts as an integral part of reading, writing, listening, and speaking development allows students to learn, practice, and apply the skills immediately as they progress through the lesson. The conventions concepts begin with subjects and predicates as students learn parts of complete sentences. See Grade 6 Unit 1 Week 2 Teacher’s Edition pages 53d, 63c, 73e, 79c, and 79o. This skill is emphasized in the writing activity, Let’s Write It! on pages 74–75 and 75a. Students work with and apply their knowledge of subjects and predicates as they complete the Writing activity for the week on page 79p. Each week a new skill is presented and practiced using this spiral structure.

GENERAL EVALUATION CRITERIA

2014-2020

Group II – English Language Arts

Grade 6

The general evaluation criteria apply to each grade level and are to be evaluated for each grade level unless otherwise specified. These criteria consist of information critical to the development of all grade levels. In reading the general evaluation criteria and subsequent specific grade level criteria, e.g. means “examples of” and i.e. means that “each of” those items must be addressed. Eighty percent of the general and eighty percent of the specific criteria must be met with I (In-depth) or A (Adequate) in order to be recommended.

To fully comprehend any text, students must participate in discussions about the text as they search for text-based information, relate the information to other sources, compare and contrast information with that in other reading selections, and work to understand the text. These activities lead to identifying issues and creatively exploring all aspects to solve problems. Information and Communication Skills/English Language Arts

For student mastery of content standards and objectives, the instructional materials will include multiple strategies that provide students with opportunities to:

Many questions including those labeled “Reread Challenging Text” direct students to reread text, interpret its meaning, and discuss it. See Unit 1 Teacher’s Edition pages 34–35, 70–71, 91a, 119a, 146–147 for examples. The Look Back and Write question and often other questions on the Student Edition Think Critically page (see Unit 1 Student Edition pages 40, 72, 100, 128, 160) require students to reread text. At the end of each paired selection are Reading Across Texts and Writing Across Texts prompts that provide opportunities for original communication for comparison and synthesis. Reading Street Teacher’s Editions at all levels provide a read-and-reread strategy for each main selection. In the 1st Read at Grade 6, students respond to questions that help them understand the text. In the 2nd Read, students draw knowledge from the text and respond to questions based on the higher-order thinking skills of analysis, synthesis, and evaluation (see Unit 1 pages 28–29 to 31a, 32–33 to 39a). As students respond to the text-based questions that accompany the main and paired selections in the Student Edition and the Reading Street Sleuth selections in the Small Group lessons, they are continually required to use text information to make informed responses and choices.	6. make informed choices; and
The program has been created to show how the materials are carefully designed and constructed around excellent informational texts and literature to help students master the concepts they need to succeed in school and beyond. From the printed books to the online database, students and teachers can choose from a wide variety of materials as they develop the important reading, writing, listening, and speaking concepts. See Unit 1 page 20c.	7. interact with outside resources through opportunities for local and global collaboration in a variety of safe venues.

Personal and Workplace Productivity Skills

For student mastery of content standards and objectives, the instructional materials will provide students with opportunities to:

Reading Street provides daily Research and Inquiry projects each week in the core lessons. The weekly Research and Inquiry project expands and extends the weekly concept. In the weekly Research and Inquiry projects, students research to find information about a chosen topic as they prepare a report or presentation on the topic. Students are guided to use both print and digital materials to locate the information they need to answer inquiry questions, narrow their topic, and support their thesis. TE: 6.1
Week 1: 23b, 31b, 41d, 49b, 49n

8. conduct research, validate sources and report ethically on findings;

Each day, at every grade level, teachers are provided with lesson instruction, modeled teacher talk, and additional resources to reach the range of learning styles in the classroom. The program’s robust digital assets augment print delivery and expand the multisensory capacity of the proven instruction. Abundant practice and authentic application can be found in multiple components in both print and digital formats. See Unit 1 page 20c for the Digital Resources and the eStreet Interactive icon as shown on page 20–21.

9. identify, evaluate and apply appropriate technology tools for a variety of purposes;

Each main selection in the Student Edition includes a Think Critically page with a Look Back and Write question. Each paired selection in the Student Edition includes a Writing Across Texts prompt. Both writing tasks require students to answer the question and communicate their thinking. See Unit 1 Student Edition pages 40, 47 and Unit 1 Teacher’s Edition pages 40–41, 41a, 46–47, 47a. The weekly Research and Inquiry projects guide students in writing and answering inquiry questions and collecting and organizing information before communicating their findings to others. The oral and written activities in Think Critically (Unit 1 page 40) involve students in discussions about selection content while responding to questions that improve and extend comprehension. Additionally, the Small Group activities have Team Talk discussion activities on Day 4 for On-Level, Strategic Intervention, and Advanced learners.	11. work collaboratively; and

Reading Street offers instruction that allows students to work together in whole group activities, in small group, in team activities with several classmates or a partner. The length and density of the section helps to promote the use of all aspects of reading. The Research and Inquiry sections in each Day in the 5-Day lesson plan ask students to use digital and print materials and recommend specific tasks to accommodate understanding of a wide variety of text content and concepts. In Reading Street Teacher’s Editions, weekly story tabs have direct correlations to Common Core State Standards being covered that week, while the Bridge to Common Core boxes throughout the daily plan offer insights to the anchor standards in action. Abundant practice and authentic application can be found in multiple components in both print and digital formats. Review and assessment occurs on a daily, weekly, and unit basis. Visually vibrant and compelling content with a high ratio of informational content in a multimedia array affords daily experiences for today’s digital classroom, with its high expectations for inquiry and collaboration toward CCR (College and Career Readiness). See the information on the front and back of the Weekly Tab for each selection.	13. are structured to ensure all students meet grade-specific expectations as they develop content knowledge and literacy skills aligned to college and career readiness expectations.
Teacher scaffolding is focused on reader and task suggestions to access text, routines for reading for understanding, and a two-tiered questioning strategy to address deep reading. For evidence of text as the central focus of daily instruction, see the following examples: Unit 1 Teacher’s Edition pages 21a–21b, 21c to 22–23, 24a–24b, 26–27 to 31a, 32a–32b, 32c–39a, 44a–44b, 44c–47a	14. include suggestions for appropriate scaffolding and provide opportunities to engage in high interest, age-appropriate activities that simulate real-life situations, and make cross-curricular, global connections.

Each grade level is organized into six units. For each unit a grade-appropriate concept summarized in a unit question is divided into weekly topics and questions to create content knowledge related to social studies and science concepts. This structure is followed from Grade K to Grade 6. For Grade 6 Unit 1, Unit Skills Overview introductory pages xvi and xvii show at a glance how the unit is structured with Integrated Science and Social Studies topics, the Weekly Question, and the Knowledge Goals. This is also presented in the Weekly structure on Content Knowledge page xxii. Within each Week, the information is expanded on in the Bridge to Common Core knowledge notes. See Teacher’s Edition Unit 1 Week 1 pages 20j, 23e, 24e, 26–27, 31b, 40–41, 43b, 44c, 49a, 49c, 49f and 49p. In Grade 6 selections, the text and graphics are carefully put together to invite the reader to read and enjoy the selection and the related materials. A review of the Student Edition shows the Unit/Week structure with each main selection having vocabulary and comprehension pages prior to reading. The main selection is followed by Think Critically questions about the selection (see Unit 1 page 40–41) and Let’s Write It! pages with a writing activity (see Unit 1 page 42–43). The paired selection pages include annotations for Let’s Think About... for understanding the content reading (see Unit 1 pages 44–45, 46–47), which is followed by Vocabulary and Listening and Speaking or Media Literacy pages (see Unit 1 page 48–49). Additionally, the digital materials are incorporated into the lesson in the eStreet Interactive boxes.	16. provide students with opportunities to use print, graphs, visual displays, media and technology sources to acquire and apply new information.

Instruction and practice in sequence are included as students read each selection. Students answer questions about the key details and sequence of events in the selection and create their own questions as they monitor and clarify the content of the selection they are reading. The Retelling Cards are shown on the Think Critically page at the end of every selection in the Student Edition (see Unit 1 page 40). These cards can be used to help students retell the selection, including the central message or main ideas, presenting this information in the sequence found in the selection. Students can add to and interpret the events as they retell the story in their own words, verifying their understanding of the content. The Teacher’s Edition instruction for the Think Critically page (see Unit 1 pages 40–41 to 41a) provides suggestions to apply and extend retelling skills.	17. offer opportunities for students to build an understanding of sequencing of time, events and text with or without an anchor text.

In every lesson in Reading Street, students are actively involved in reading the selection. The questions and activities for each selection expose students to content that requires them to interpret the text by using text evidence to comprehend the selection and to combine that evidence with interpretive skills to understand the content and structure of the reading materials. Students are also asked to extend the interpretation to multiple applications for solutions. See Unit 1 Teacher’s Edition pages 28–29 to 31a, 32–33 to 39a, page 40–41 for Text to Text, page 72–73 for Text to Self, and Unit 2 page 194–195 for Text to World connections.	18. provide opportunities for students to investigate issues that are interconnected to explore complex problems that can change at varied entry points suggesting the possibility of multiple solutions.

Weekly and unit instruction is built around science and social studies concepts. With the Main Selection as the anchor text, these concepts connect every piece of literature, vocabulary, and writing, allowing students to develop deep knowledge. Text-based instruction is the most important aspect of all instruction in Reading Street, and interaction with complex text begins on Day 1 at all grades. Interaction with complex text goes beyond the main selection and includes teacher read aloud (see Unit 1 Day 1 pages 21a–21b), teacher or student read-aloud instructional passages (see Unit 1 Day 1 pages 21c to 22–23 and Day 2 pages 24e to 24–25), main selection (see Day 2 pages 28–29 to 31a and Day 3 pages 32–33 to 39a), paired selection (see Day 4 pages 44–45 to 47a), and Reading Street Sleuth (see Small Group Days 1 and 5 pages SG•2, SG•6, SG•7, SG•11, SG•12, SG•16). See Unit 1 Teacher’s Edition page 20j for an example of a list of the complex texts students engage with over the course of a lesson.	19. provide opportunities for students to investigate texts that are interconnected and linked to an anchor text.

At all grade levels in Reading Street, more than 80% of the questions are high-quality text-dependent questions requiring students to rely on the text to find the answers. Text-dependent and text-specific questions provided in the Teacher’s Edition for the main and paired selections include the 1st Read/Access Text questions, in which students explore the content of the selections, and the 2nd Read/Close Reading questions, in which students use text evidence as they synthesize, analyze, and evaluate the text. See Unit 1 pages 28–29 to 31a, 32–33 to 39a.	20. include guiding questions and text-dependent questions to aid student comprehension.
In Content Knowledge on Day 1 at all grade levels in Reading Street, students use academic vocabulary from texts to develop a concept-related graphic organizer that is expanded throughout the week as knowledge is built through discourse and text evidence. Students build oral language and oral vocabulary by acquiring academic and domain-specific words, exemplified in each week’s Amazing Words. Students use these words in reading, writing, speaking, and listening. For examples, see Unit 1 Teacher’s Edition pages 20j, 20–21, 21a–21b, 24a–24b, 32a–32b, 44a–44b, 49f–49g.	21. include best practices that emphasize the importance of authentic vocabulary acquisition using multiple methods and modes that motivate and increase vocabulary skills.

Multi-modal and diverse media experiences augment print instruction, and an increase in specificity and focus of instruction delivers targeted reteaching and remediation in small group or personalized learning settings, all informed by a strong progress monitoring component throughout the series. Reading Street is dedicated to the advancement of all learners, including the gifted. Daily enrichment and targeted text, all designed by national gifted education expert, ensure consistent engagement for this specialized population. See Unit 1 Access for All chart on pages 20f–20g as well as notes on Unit 1 Teacher’s Edition representative pages 24d, 27a, 35a, 37a, 41c, 41e, 45a.	22. support personalized learning through intervention and enrichment activities.
Reading Street provides an extensive offering of technology components to enhance and expand learning and instruction. The digital offerings are cited at the beginning of each week and at point of use on Teacher’s Edition pages. Reading Street’s parallel digital resources engage all students with user-friendly, interactive activities. Videos, games, animations, and e-text relate directly to daily instruction and enhance comprehension. Reading Street users can select digital assets to assign to students and provide feedback. Automatic remediation is delivered based on student assessment data. The activities and questions that accompany each main selection are intended for use by all students. The Access Text questions used in the 1st Read help students understand the text. The Close Reading questions used in the 2nd Read help them extend their interpretation of the text using higher-level thinking skills by applying Analysis, Synthesis, and Evaluation questions to the text and supporting their responses with Text Evidence. See these representative pages in the Unit 1 Teacher’s Edition: 28–29 to 31a, 32–33 to 39a.	25. include high-quality sequences of text-dependent questions to guide students in delving deeper into text and graphics and elicit sustained attention to the specifics of the text and their impact.

The program contains many forms of assessment for measuring students' abilities. The Monitor Progress suggestions within the lessons provide evaluation during the lesson, and the weekly assessments offer more formal evaluation. Tools are included to monitor students' letter recognition/phonics, high-frequency words, and comprehension development as listed in the next item. See Corrective Feedback notes on Unit 1 pages 22–23, 23a, 24–25, 31d, 32c, 32d, 41b, 44–45, 46–47, 49e, 49j, 49l; See Monitor Progress notes on Unit 1 pages 21a, 41a, 48–49, 49g.	26. include questions and tasks that assess the depth and complexity of the analytical thinking required by the objectives. SPECIFIC EVALUATION CRITERIA

Group II – English Language Arts

Grade 6

English Language Arts sixth grade students apply a variety of strategies to increase language, writing and comprehension skills within a literacy-rich environment. Those strategies include literal, inferential and critical thinking components couched in student directed, meaningful and engaging learning experiences. Students continue to evaluate connections among the facts, ideas and concepts of literary and informational texts across the curriculum with increasing emphasis on informational texts. Sixth grade students continue to read literary and informational texts of appropriate complexity. Sixth grade students use the writing process and the conventions of language to address specific writing purposes with increased emphasis on informative/explanatory and argumentative writing and speaking for various audiences. They demonstrate competency in mechanics and language usage in order to communicate ideas effectively. Sixth grade 21st Century learners employ listening, speaking and media strategies to gather and process oral information in order to effectively express themselves in a variety of situations. The West Virginia Standards for 21st Century Learning include the Next Generation West Virginia Content Standards and Objectives and 21st Century Learning Skills and Technology Tools. All West Virginia teachers are responsible for classroom instruction that integrates content standards and objectives, learning skills and technology tools.

Standard 1: Reading

The development of proficient reading skills is critical for mastering academic content, succeeding in school and fulfilling life's potential. Students must show a steadily growing ability to discern more from and fuller use of text, including making an increasing number of connections among ideas and between texts, considering a wider range of textual evidence and becoming more sensitive to inconsistencies, ambiguities, and poor reasoning in text. In order to build the foundational skills of reading, students will master the essential components of reading: phonemic awareness, phonics, background knowledge/vocabulary, high frequency words/fluency, comprehension and written application. Students will gain adequate exposure to a range of texts and tasks. Rigor is also infused through the requirement that students read increasingly complex texts through the grades. Students advancing through the grades are expected to meet each year's grade-specific standards and retain or further develop skills and understandings mastered in preceding grades.

Standard 2: Writing

Students will apply writing skills and strategies to communicate effectively for different purposes using specific writing types. They will use the writing process by appropriately applying the organization of ideas, development of main ideas and supporting details, varied sentence structure, word choice and mechanics. Using a variety of literary and informational texts, print sources and media sources, students will select, organize and evaluate for research purposes.

Standard 3: Speaking and Listening

Students will be required to communicate ideas clearly and efficiently, including but not limited to formal presentations. They will need to use oral communication and interpersonal skills as they work together. They will need to be able to express and listen carefully to ideas, integrate information from oral, visual, quantitative and media sources, evaluate what they hear, use media and visual displays strategically to help achieve communicative purposes, and adapt speech to context and task.

Standard 4: Language

Students will learn and apply the standard rules of written and spoken English while approaching language as a matter of craft and informed choice among alternatives to communicate. Students will understand words and phrases, their relationships, and their nuances and acquire new vocabulary, particularly general academic and domain-specific words and phrases.

For student mastery of content standards and objectives, the instructional materials will provide students with the opportunity to

39. determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade 6 reading and content, choosing flexibly from an array of strategies.

- use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence or paragraph; a word’s position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
- use common, grade-appropriate Greek or Latin affixes and roots as clues to the meaning of a word (e.g., audience, auditory, audible).
- consult reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning or its part of speech.
- verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).
