Text Selection and Range of Texts: Texts are worthy of students' time and attention (of quality, rigorous, and at the right text complexity for grade level, student, and task)
1	Materials pay careful attention to building knowledge systematically through reading, writing, listening and speaking in the target language about topics under study. (e.g., classics, contemporary, sciences, humanities, social studies, cultural studies, etc.)	SE: p. 239, Cultura: El mundo hispano
2	Materials include a wide variety of authentic texts that include all modes of communication: Interpretive, Interpersonal and Presentational.	SE: pp. 266-267, Auténtico, Watch the Video, Complete the Activities, Integration
Text Selection – Quality of Texts: High-quality texts are worth reading closely and exhibit exceptional craft and thought and/or provide useful information.
3	Materials provide content rich and well-crafted texts, representing the best and most authentic texts available in a variety of informational text structures. (e.g., speeches, editorials, newspaper articles, essays, literary nonfiction).	SE: pp. 444-445, Auténtico
4	Materials provide assignments with activities requiring student responses that promote respect for all people regardless of race, color, creed, national origin, age, gender, language or disability.	SE: p. 392, La cultura en vivo
5	Materials provide an introduction to the lesson including the comprehension questions (i.e., focus questions or guiding questions) the student will be expected to answer at the conclusion of the classroom instruction.	SE: pp. 346-347, Vocabulario en contexto
Text-Dependent and Text-Specific Questions: Questions in the materials are high-quality text-dependent and text-specific questions. The overwhelming majority of these questions are text-specific and draw student attention to the particulars in the text.
6	Materials provide text-dependent questions and tasks that require use of textual evidence, including supporting valid inferences from the text.	SE: pp. 364-365, Lectura, ¿Comprendes?
7	Materials provide questions and tasks that assess the depth and complexity of analytical thinking required by the standards at each proficiency level.	SE: pp. 368-369, Auténtico, Completa las actividades, Integración
8	Materials provide questions and tasks that support students in unpacking the academic language (vocabulary and syntax) prevalent in complex texts.	SE: pp. 440-441, Lectura, ¿Comprendes?
9	Materials provide opportunities for rich and rigorous evidence-based discussions and writing about texts.	SE: pp. 416-417, Lectura, ¿Comprendes?
Scaffolding and Supports
10	Materials support students' literacy skills (understanding and comprehension) over the course of the school year through increasingly complex text to develop independence of proficiency level skills.	TE: p. 415, Enrich Your Teaching, Teacher-to-Teacher
11	Materials provide real-world activities for student practice with natural language (e.g. mock interviews, presentations, conversations).	SE: p. 241, Presentación oral
12	Materials provide a scope and sequence that clearly guides students to demonstrate their independent capacity to read and write at the appropriate level of complexity and sophistication defined by the standards.	SE: p. 246, Chapter Objectives
13	Materials assess students at a variety of knowledge levels (Bloom's, Depth of Knowledge, etc.) centered on proficiency level texts aligned and measured against the adopted New Mexico Standards expectations.	TE: p. 269, Differentiated Assessment
